

I am appalled to learn that Sinclair may force their 62 stations to air a politically-motivated documentary on publically-owned airwaves that is blatantly one-sided and unfair. This is an extraordinary example of why the media must not allowed to be controlled by just a few large broadcasting companies. Our democratic form of government is at stake!